COUNCIL BLUFFS

BIG DRAIN ON CITY FUNDS

Expenditures Must Be Checked or They Will Be Exhausted Before Close of Year.

HALF OF STREET FUNDS ARE EXPENDED

Other Funds Not So Heavily Drawn or, But More Than the Proportionate Share Has Already Been Paid Out.

The city will have to call a halt in its expenditures or otherwise the appropriation will be exhausted long before the close of the fiscal year, stated one of the aldermen yesterday after looking over City Auditor Schmidt's report for the month of July, just completed. The report shows that of the $80,000 appropriated for the maintenance of the several municipal departments for the twelve months ending March 31, 1906, there is but $5,302.84 unexpended.

The cost of operating the dredge on Indian creek during July was over $1,000 and warrants drawn on the maintenance of funds during that month brought up the city's expenses to nearly $11,000.

PAVING PLANS TO BE CUT DOWN

Too Much of the Cost is Chargeable to the City.

A member of the city council is authority for the statement that the contract ordered paved will be cut out of the contract with E. A. Wickham at the meeting of the city council next Monday night. The reason is because a large portion of the cost of improving those streets will of necessity fall upon the city and the improvement fund will be exhausted.

It is stated that Park avenue from Pomonka street to the entrance of Fairmount park will be cut out, as it is almost certain that half of the cost of the improvement will fall on the city, which, about one side, are so much below grade that the paving will not benefit them. It is also proposed, it is said, to cut out Harmony street, Benton is to be paved and the lots cornering on both streets and the result will be that the burden will fall on the city. The alley west of Sixth street between Fifth and Seventh streets, it is understood, is also slated to be cut out of the contract and it is likely that another attempt will be made to cut out South Ninth and possibly South Tenth street from the list. That this will be, however, opposition to cutting out these last two streets is certain.

Refuse Prospect for Carnival.

The demand for booths in the street fair and carnival this year is greater than ever before and the city is in a position to exceed anything heretofore attempted by the merchants of this city," said Secretary Treutman of the carnival and street fair committee yesterday. Owing to the numerous attempts to be offered this year he has managed to secure the booths will have to be proportionately limited to every inch of available space will be utilized. Up to last evening forty-four booths had been contracted for and the committee has a number of applications still pending.

Those who have engaged space for booths so far are: The Flower mission, the Non-Parol, Keller & Farnsworth, B. M. Sargent, Joe Smith & Co., Pioneer Implement company, Citizens Gas and Electric company, Herman Leffert, the John Deere company, C. B. Jacquemin, J. A. Maurer, Perry & Moore, H. H. ### Junk Dealers Give Bail.

H. Segal and M. Berovely, Omaha junk dealers, who were indicted last May on the charge of receiving lead belonging to the smelter from freight cars in this city, gave bonds yesterday in the sum of $300 each for their appearance in district court. They had been out on bonds, given at the time of their preliminary hearing in district court, but had failed to put up with their appearance for trial in the district court. Word had been sent them by the Council Bluffs authorities to come here and stand trial, but they neglected to do so until notified that they had to be placed under arrest if they did not. M. Solomon of this city is the surety on both bonds.

He was fined $100 for carrying concealed weapons, with the intention that the fine would keep him in the county jail until the grand jury meets early in September. County Attorney Heas, however, after investigating the evidence against Chapin, decided that it would be insufficient to convict him of the robbery, so he yesterday ordered the information charging

ATTACK ON JUVENILE LAW

County Attorney Considers it a Hindrance in Preventing Crime.

PROPOSES TO TEST VALIDITY IN COURT

Prof. Holden of Ames College Predicts a Four Hundred Million Bushel Corn Crop for the State of Iowa.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Aug. 17.—(Special.)—County Attorney Miller today stated that at the September term of the district court here he would make an attack on the juvenile court law, on the ground that it is unconstitutional. The attack will be made by disregarding the law and taking juvenile offenders before the grand jury in the old way. Mr. Miller basins his belief that the law is unconstitutional largely on the section which forbids sending a boy under 17 years old to the penitentiary. This leaves one year in which there can be no punishment for a boy. "Under this law," said Attorney Miller today, "the boys are free to roam about as they please and are not arrested for a crime unless they are arrested for a crime which is a felony. The law is not all right for the smaller boys, but for the larger ones I am of the opinion that a few indictments will have a wholesome effect in stopping the mischief." The attack will be the first against the constitutionality of the law. It has been commonly reported and expected that the friends of the law would appear before the legislature next winter and ask that the law be amended to remove the remedy defects. The law was passed at the last session.

Drops brothers, who brought suit in Justice Field's court yesterday, charging Mrs. Haygood with disturbing the peace, were ordered to show cause why they should not be held in custody for the trial of the case. They were held in custody for the trial of the case.

Will Postpone Action.

At the next meeting of the State Board of Health an effort will be made to induce the board to postpone the trial of Dr. W. H. Smith of Rock for the reason that there is no appeal to the courts from the action of the board. Smith is charged with an offense that may result in his license being revoked by the board. He and his friends claim that if his license is revoked he has no recourse to the courts under the present law and the board is asked to delay the matter till after the meeting of the legislature when it is proposed to introduce a bill making the acts of the Board of Health appealable to the courts.
